Guest lecturer on swami Vivekananda life and works

A guest lecturer on swami Vivekananda life and works was jointly organized by the cultural committee of Dr.M.K.Umathe college Nagpur on 20th January,2020 at 9.30 am in room no.17.to commemorate the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda. Mrs Kshama Dabholkar and Mrs.Varsha Darvekar were invited for the lecture. Mrs.Kshama Dabholkar has been associated with swami vivekanand kendra, kanyakumari, since 2004 and has been spreading awareness about swami Vivekananda 'a thoughts and noble work among the youth of Nagpur.

The program commenced with the garlanding of the portrait of swami Vivekananda by the dignitaries on the dais. Mrs Kshama Dabholkar in his wonderful and informative speech shed light on the life and work of swami Vivekananda. She narrated the childhood of Narendra, his quest for knowledge and different stages of his life till his participation in the world parliament of religious held in Chicago. He visited the world to spread his philosophy in the West .Throughout her speech she stressed on the famous quotes of swami Vivekananda such as service to man is service to God, wait ,rise, and stop not till the goal is achieved, etc.

Mrs.Kshama Dabholkar advised students to follow this doctrines/philosophy in their life. She encouraged them to read more books on swami Vivekananda.

Dr.Vaishali Meshram presided over the program. In her presidential speech she through anecdotes based on the life of Vivekananda tried to give some morals to students and ask them to speak truth fearlessly, trust their teachers and face the problem courageously.

Dr.Pritee Umathe, HoD Dept.Of Marathi conducted the proceedings. Mrs.Madhuri Warudkar proposed a vote of thanks. Dr.Kalpana Tekade, convener of cultural committee Dr.Ujwala Salwe,and other staff members and students attended the programme in large numbers.
