A Brief report On World skill Day

A program of World skill development was organized on 16.7.19 for students to make them aware about the importance of skill development required for the students in the current Job Market Scenario. The program was organized in collaboration with Vera city foundation an NGO running various program and courses under their umbrella.

Mrs. Joyti S. Sonigra founder president of Veracity foundation has addressed the gathering of students and explained in a simple way about the importance of skills like English speaking, communication, computer skill which are the prerequisite of getting good employability. She insisted to join various courses at her foundation free of cost which enables student to make them skilled and have preparedness to grab the job opportunities.

The foundation has also organized jointly Tree plantation program at our college premises by our college students and faculties. Dr. D.V. Naik Principal of our college was prominently present at the program. Dr. Kavita Borkar Asst. Professor was the convener of the program and proposed the vote of thanks.
