National Seminar on Home Economics: Self-employment in Today's Era

A national seminar on the topic "Self-employment in Today's Era" was organized by the Department of Home Economics on September 2, 2021, using a virtual platform. Dr. Vaishali Meshram was the organizer of the program, and Dr. Shribala Deshpande was the president of the program, who is also associated with the Home Economics Association of Nagpur. The program started with the inauguration and guidance by Dr. Sandhya Varma, who is an expert in the field of self-employment.

Dr. Shyamali Dighade Madam from Art College, Murtizapur, was felicitated during the first session for her valuable contribution to the topic of "Self-employment in Today's Era" and highlighting the importance and need of self-employment. She provided detailed information on the subject, including examples and guidance for those who are interested in self-employment.

The seminar was attended by various colleges, including Dr. M.K. Umath College Nagpur, Santaji Mahavidyalaya Nagpur, Nabira Mahavidyalaya Katol, and Pra. Arunrao Kalode Mahavidyalaya Nagpur. The seminar was informative and beneficial for the attendees, and it provided an insight into the current scenario of self-employment in India.

Self-Employment: Need of the Hour

Date -2nd September, 2021

About the Seminar

Self – Employment is the state of working for oneself rather than an employer self-employed people generally find their own work rather than being provided with work by an employer, earning income from a profession, a trade or a business that they operate.

Today our country is facing many problems but one of the serious problems is of unemployment. Many graduates, Doctors, Engineers, Scientist are unemployed or working underemployed. In today's world of Industrialization, the situation is changing rapidly. Now women are coming forward to shoulder the financial responsibility of the house. However, it is unlikely that each woman will get a job. So self-employment is the best option available for them to create their own world of existence.
