World Women's Day

On March 13, 2021, the Women's Cell and the National Service Scheme (NSS) organized an online (virtual) program "Tila samajun ghetanna" on the occasion of Women's Day. The principal of the college Dr. D. V. Naik Sir was present. The keynote speaker was Professor Ashwini Thakare.

Thakare madam, in her entire guide gave information about women's rights and laws. Discussed how capable women were in ancient times. In modern times, women have advanced academically, politically and socially. As a result, their economic, social and political progress has been change. Also, due to the advancement of education, the proportion of women in various fields has increased. During the Middle Ages, domestic violence against women increased. But the government took note of this and enacted laws for the safety of women. Now Indian woman is making progress in all fields. Taking care of family responsibilities, she has taken a high position in various fields. Even so, owning one is still beyond the reach of the average person. Today, women have reached space. Women have important responsibilities in cultivating family responsibilities and social integrity. So the importance of women in society is unique. Even so, it is important to understand women in the family, in society and in all areas. Women face many challenges in family, society and daily work.

On this occasion 110 students of the college were present online. Also college professors and staff were present. The program was conducted by Dr. Vaishali Meshram. Vote of thanks by Dr. Kalpana Tekade.
