Guest Lecturer Panchayat Raj and Women Empowerment

Dated 09th March 2022

A virtual guest lecture was organized by the Department of Political Science and National Service Scheme in Dr. M. K. Umathe College. Dr. Ashwini Khapare was the keynote speaker on this occasion and she gave guidance on the topic of Panchayat Raj and Women Empowerment. The society's perception is that she should be taken care of by her father when she was young, by her husband when she was young, and by her son when she was old, because she was a slave in such a society. After independence, the idea of women's empowerment came to the fore, although women constitute half of the society, it has not developed as much as it should be, especially in rural areas, so that women have a secondary position, the constitution was amended to allow women to participate in the Panchayat Raj system. Initially 30 percent reservation was given. Later reservation was made above 50 percent and the intention was to have public participation in the process of democratization. But now the attitude towards women in all fields has widened. Women's views are respected. Women's participation in politics has increased due to opportunities in politics and social causes. Despite the opportunity given to her, women are still facing the issue of safety, so women need to be physically fit. Although women have become financially self-reliant due to their educational advancement, women will be truly empowered only if both men and women work equally and cooperate with each other. This virtual lecture series was moderated by Dr. Vinod Khedkar and the vote of thanks was given by Dr. Kalpana Tekade. All the professors and most of the students of the college were present on the occasion.
