National Service Scheme Awareness Program

डॉ. श्री. डी.व्ही नाईक

An online programme was organized on 23rd October 2020 under the Department of National Service Scheme of Dr. M. K. Umathe College to create awareness among the community about the NSS volunteers. The main Resource Person of this program was Dr. Rajendra Khawale. Dr. Khawale further elaborated on, when and why the National Service Scheme has launched his guidance.

Every citizen has to give towards the society and the country. There are also some responsibilities. National service Scheme were always aware of those responsibilities. It is also the duty of every Volunteers to try to solve the problems of society by raising awareness about undesirable norms, traditions, superstitions, female feticide, atrocities, child labor, hygiene, and crime. As well as the problems caused by the growing drought, various programs such as tree planting, horizontal water reclamation campaigns, sewage planning, monitoring of slums are implemented under the National Service Plan. Dr. Khawale appealed to the students to participate in this. On this occasion, he gave detailed guidance on the purpose, symbol, the prayer of NSS. At the concluding remarks of the program, Dr. Kalpana Tekade appealed to the students to participate in the National Service Scheme programs implemented throughout the year.

The program was conducted by Dr. Vinod Khedkar (Program Officer, National Service Scheme). Vote of thanks given by Professor Astik Gowarkar. Prof. Dr. Vijay Bansod, Prof. Apurba Pal, Dr. Sameer Naeem, and Dr. Preeti Umathe were online present at the event.
