On

National Voting Day

On January 25, 2021, A special lecture was organized on the occasion of National Voting Day on 25th January under Dr. M. K. Umathe College National Service Scheme Department and Political Science Department.

The keynote speaker was Dr. Kalpana Tekade (Head, Department of Political Science, Dr. MK Umathe College, Nagpur). She appealed to all to implementation their voting right under the Indian Constitution. The Election Commission of India was established on January 25, 1950, given the importance of constitutional voting power in a democratic country. For this, the day was celebrated as National Voting Day. The Constitution gives the right to vote to everyone who has completed 18 years of age. Every citizen has to abide by this right, regardless of caste. Dr. Kalpana Tekade appealed to us to fulfill that duty. After the presidency, the principal of the college, Dr. Naik Sir, appealed to all those who have completed 18 years to register their name to the voter list. The program was conducted by Dr. Vinod Khedkar. Prof. Apurba Pal, Dr. Vijay Bansod, Dr. Preeti Umathe made efforts to make this program a successful.
