“Group Reading Activity under Wachan Sankalp Maharashtracha”

Date: 1st January 2025

Dr. M. K. Umathe College, Nagpur, organized a Group Reading Activity on 1st January, 2025 as part of the Wachan Sankalp Maharashtracha, a noble initiative aimed at promoting reading habits among students. The activity was conducted under the guidance of the Principal, Dr. D. V. Naik, who emphasized the importance of reading as a pathway to knowledge and personal development.

Faculty members, along with a large number of enthusiastic students, actively participated in the event, making it a significant contribution to the state-level Wachan Sankalp Pandharwada. The event featured collective reading session where students, the Principal, IQAC coordinator and the staff read excerpts from inspiring literary works, including Marathi, English, and Hindi literature.

Dr. Naik, in his address, highlighted the transformative power of reading and encouraged students to dedicate time to self-learning through books. He also appreciated the government's initiative to cultivate a reading culture among the youth.

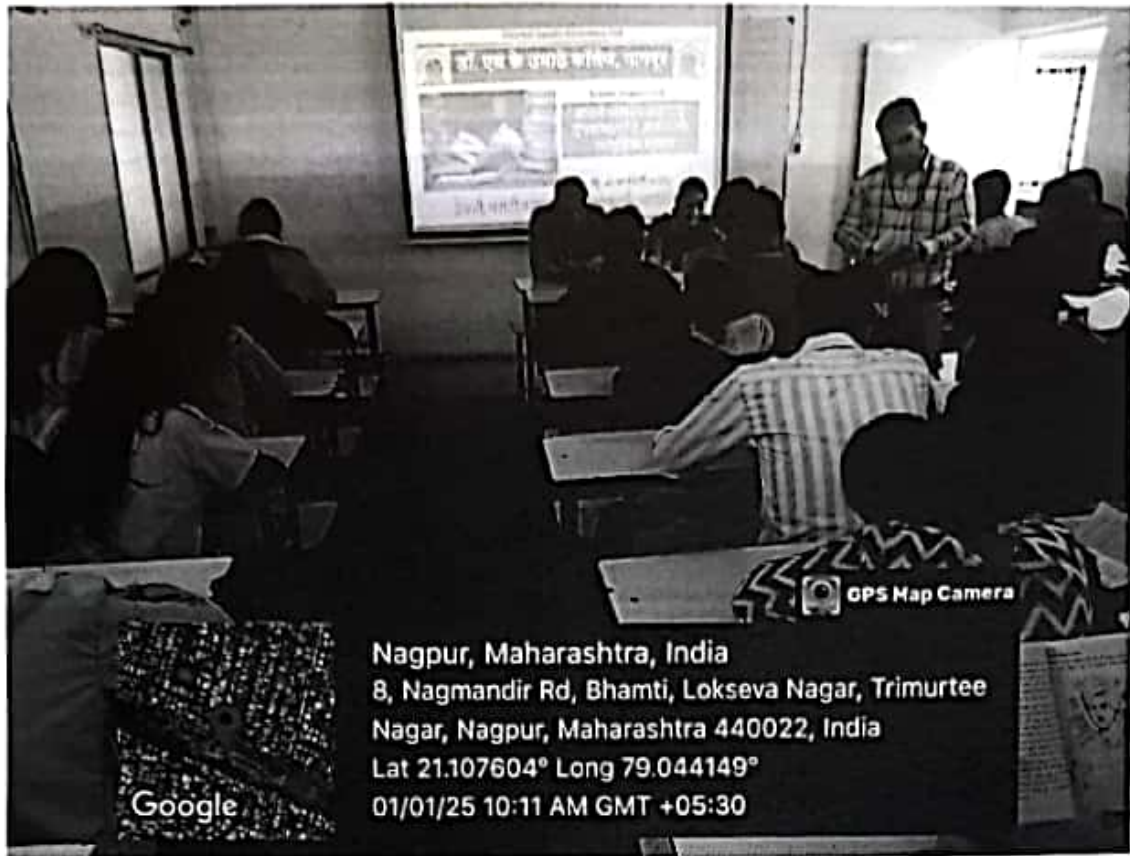

Dr. Vaishali Meshram, Assistant Professor of English and Mr. Sanket Bansod, Assistant Professor of Marathi motivated students to take a pledge to continue reading regularly and fostering a love for books in their peers. The Group Reading Activity not only inspired participants but also reaffirmed the college's dedication to holistic student development. Around more than 40 students attended and participated in the activity.
